

American Institute for Contemporary
German Studies
JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY

Global Responsibility: How Do Germany and the United States Engage with One Another to Address International Challenges?

Washington, DC

Thursday, 2 November – Friday, 3 November 2017

Agenda

The first conference of “A German-American Dialogue of the Next Generation: Global Responsibility, Joint Engagement” engages young Americans and Germans in discussions of current issues of concern for the transatlantic relationship. Young leaders in the fields of foreign and domestic policy; society, culture, and politics; and economics will come together to address challenges facing the United States and Germany and identify strategies that can contribute to solving these challenges.

---

Day One: Conference

Location: 901 E Conference Center, The Pew Charitable Trusts, 901 E St NW, Washington, DC 20004

- |                   |  |
|-------------------|--|
| 9:00 – 9:15am     | IntroductionDr. Lily Gardner Feldman, Harry and Helen Gray Senior Fellow, Director, Society, Culture & Politics Program, AICGSDr. Jackson Janes, President, AICGSElke Kallenbach, Minister Counselor, Head of Finance Section, German Embassy |
| 9:15 – 10:45am    | Foreign and Domestic Policy PanelFacilitators: Peter Rough, Hudson InstituteSonja Thielges, Institute for Advanced Sustainability Studies   |
| 10:45 – 11:00am   | Coffee Break  |
| 11:00am – 12:30pm | Society, Culture, and Politics PanelFacilitators: Dr. Felix Berenskötter, University of LondonRachel Seavey, MIT Senseable City Lab   |
| 12:30 – 1:30pm    | Luncheon  |
| 1:30 – 3:00pm     | Geoeconomics PanelFacilitators: Sidney Rothstein, Free University BerlinDr. Angela Stanzel, European Council on Foreign Relations   |

*This project is supported by the Transatlantic Program of the Federal Republic of Germany
with funds from the European Recovery Program (ERP)
of the German Federal Ministry of Economics and Energy (BMWi).*

3:00 – 4:00pm            Conclusion

6:00 – 8:00pm            Group Dinner
Sette Osteria, 1634 14th St NW, Washington, DC 20009

---

Day Two: Site Visits

Location: Meet at AICGS, 1755 Massachusetts Avenue, NW, Washington DC 20036

8:00am                    Bus Pick-Up: Meet in front of AICGS by 7:45am

9:00 – 10:30am            First Site Visit: U.S. Department of State
Address:            2201 C Street NW, Washington, DC 20520
Host:                Conrad R. Tribble, Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for European and Eurasian Affairs
                          Ken Toko, Senior Desk Officer for Germany, Office of Western European Affairs

11:00 – 12:30pm            Second Site: Visit: Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany
Address:            4645 Reservoir Rd NW, Washington, DC 20007
Host:                Elke Kallenbach, Minister Counselor, Head of Finance Section
                          Christian Jetzlsperger, Counselor, Deputy Head of Political Department
                          Karl Mathias Klause, Minister, Head of Economic Department
                          Dr. Stefan Buchwald, Minister Counselor, Director German
                          Information Center USA

12:30 – 1:30pm            Lunch at the German Embassy

2:30 – 4:00pm            Third Site Visit: Center for a New American Security
Address:            1152 15th Street, NW, Suite 950, Washington, DC 20005
Host:                Julie Smith, Senior Fellow & Director, Transatlantic Security Program
                          Rachel Rizzo, Research Associate, Transatlantic Security Program
                          Jim Townsend, Adjunct Senior Fellow, Transatlantic Security Program

*This project is supported by the Transatlantic Program of the Federal Republic of Germany
with funds from the European Recovery Program (ERP)
of the German Federal Ministry of Economics and Energy (BMWi).*